

Professional Development

The Office of Academic Affairs at NVCC encourages and supports the continuous acquisition of knowledge and skills of all faculty. Professional development opportunities include available workshops, conferences, technology and online training, Professional Day and the Brown Bag Colloquia series. Several support services for faculty are provided through the Center for Teaching, New Employee Orientation, mentoring, and sabbaticals.