

Course Title & Number: Introduction Public Health Issues in Drug and Alcohol Addiction, DAR H101

Competency Area: APPRECIATION OF THE ETHICAL DIMENSIONS OF HUMANKIND (Goal: Students will identify ethical principles that guide individual and collective actions and apply those principles to the analysis of contemporary social and political problems.)

Faculty submitting the Learning Outcomes: Sandra Valente, Ph.D. Date: 11/10/2013

[Instructions: Please match the Learning Outcomes in the left hand column to those of the course you are submitting for Gen Ed approval. List the corresponding course outcomes in the right hand column to indicate a match.]

BOR TAP's Learning Outcomes	Corresponding Outcomes for Course Named Above
1. Recognize and reflect critically on ethical issues.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Describe the principals of ethical decision making process for addiction counselors.• Describe the established professional code of ethics that define the professional context, within which the addiction counselor works, in order to maintain professional standards and safeguard the client.• Explain addiction professional's obligations to adhere to ethical and behavioral standards of conduct in the helping relationship.
2. Apply appropriate concepts and terminology in identifying ethical problems and proposing and defending solutions to them.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Describe the established professional code of ethics that define the professional context, within which the addiction counselor works, in order to maintain professional standards and safeguard the client.• Conduct ongoing self-evaluation of professional performance in addictions counseling applying ethical, legal, and professional standards to enhance self-awareness and performance.• Interpret and apply ethical, legal, and professional standards to cases involving clients with addiction and mental health diagnoses.
3. Apply standards and practices of scholarship, research, and documentation to defend positions and beliefs, including reevaluating beliefs in light of unforeseen implications or new evidence.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Describe the purpose of engaging in appropriate continuing professional education in the field of addiction counseling.• Describe the importance of self-awareness in one's personal, professional, and cultural life as an addiction counselor.• Conduct self-evaluations of professional performance applying ethical, legal, and professional standards to enhance self-awareness and performance.• Engage in ethical practice, including appropriate citation of research and documentation of client information when writing research reports and client case studies.

4. Recognize the value of creative, collaborative, and innovative approaches to problem-solving, including the ability to acknowledge differing points of view.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Describe the purpose of participation in ongoing supervision and consultation as an addictions counselor.• Describe the purpose of case management and collaboration in recognizing and treating the client as a unique individual in the provision of addiction treatment.• Describe the purpose of case presentation as a component of supervision and problem solving in addictions treatment.
	Additional Outcomes