

Naugatuck Valley Community College

Radiologic Technology Program Effectiveness Outcomes Classes of 2011 – 2015

ARRT Examination Results

The five-year average credentialing examination pass rate of not less than 75 percent at first attempt within six months of graduation.

| Class Years | First Time Examinees | Passed on First Attempt | Five-year Average First Attempt | ARRT Exam average score five-year period. |
|-------------|----------------------|-------------------------|---------------------------------|---|
| 2011-2015   | 71                   | 71                      | 100%                            | 87%                                       |

Job Placement

Five-year average job placement rate of not less than 75 percent within twelve months of graduation.

| Class Years | Graduate Responses | Employed Within 12 months | Did not seek work or continued education | Five-year Average |
|-------------|--------------------|---------------------------|--|-------------------|
| 2011-2015   | 47                 | 38                        | 5  | 90% (38/42)       |

Program Retention

| Class Year | Admitted | Readmit/Transfer | Graduates | Retention   |
|------------|----------|------------------|-----------|-------------|
| 2015       | 25       | 0                | 17        | 68% (17/25) |

Congratulations to the Class of 2016

- ARRT Exam first attempt pass rate: 100%. 22/22 – Class Average: 86