Eligible applicants: Female Family Economic Security Program (FESP) students who will graduate NVCC with a GPA of at least a 3.0, a record of campus service or activity, and a plan to pursue a bachelor's degree at an accredited four-year university or college. Proof of application or acceptance may be required, and we hope that applicants will apply well in advance of receipt of tuition payment deadlines. We encourage applicants to attend college full-time, but they must enroll in at least three-quarters college classes each semester to maintain their scholarship eligibility. 2 FESP students will be eligible for Pasculano Transfer Scholarships in Calendar Year 2017; another 2 FESP students will be eligible for Pasculano Transfer Scholarships in Calendar Year 2018.

Amount of scholarship award: Up to $5,000 in a scholarship grant, per year, for 2 years. Fairfield County Community Foundation (FCCF) will pay the grant directly to the four-year college/university, for the benefit of the student.

Uses of scholarship award: Tuition; residential living expenses/fees; transportation; campus fees; books and course materials. FCCF will pay the grant directly to the four-year college/university.

Expectation regarding mentoring/advisement: FCCF expects that scholarship recipients will communicate regularly with an assigned advisor/advocate/mentor at the four-year college/university (to be assigned within the first 3 months of college matriculation). FCCF expects that the scholarship recipients will communicate regularly with the FESP NVCC staff, as well as with FCCF staff who will be responsible for paying the 2nd year grant award to the college/university and ensuring continued scholarship eligibility.

Expectation regarding donor thank you letters: FCCF expects that scholarship recipients will write the donor family a letter (c/o FCCF) each year, describing the status of their college studies, etc.
